

Foreclosures (2005)

About the Authors

John Rao is an NCLC attorney focusing on consumer bankruptcy, foreclosures, and credit law. He is co-author of Repossessions and Foreclosures (5th ed. 2002), the predecessor to this volume, and editor of Consumer Bankruptcy Law and Practice (7th ed. 2004). He is also a contributing author to Collier on Bankruptcy and the Collier Bankruptcy Practice Guide. For 18 years, he had a bankruptcy and consumer law focus at Rhode Island Legal Services and was a managing attorney there. He is a member of the board of directors for the National Association of Consumer Bankruptcy Attorneys and the American Bankruptcy Institute.

Odette Williamson is an NCLC staff attorney with a focus on sustainable homeownership, consumer credit and foreclosure prevention issues and co-author of Repossessions and Foreclosures (5th ed. 2002), the predecessor to this volume. She formerly was an assistant attorney general with the Consumer Protection Division of the Massachusetts Attorney General's Office. She is co-author of Foreclosures (1st ed. 2005).

Tara Twomey is a Clinical Instructor and Skadden Fellow at the Hale and Dorr Legal Services Center of Harvard Law School where her practice focuses, in part, on sustainable homeownership, including foreclosure prevention and chapter 13 bankruptcy. She is also a contributing author for Collier Consumer Bankruptcy Practice Guide. She was formerly a lecturer at Harvard Law School, adjunct faculty member at Boston College Law School, and law clerk to the Chief Justice of the Massachusetts Supreme Court.

Carolyn Carter is NCLC's Deputy Director for Advocacy, and was formerly co-director of Legal Services, Inc., in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania and director of the Law Reform Office of Cleveland Legal Aid Society. She is the author of Repossessions (6th ed. 2005), and co-author of Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices (1997, 2001, 2004), Consumer Warranty Law (1997, 2001), and Automobile Fraud (2d ed. 2003), and contributing author to Truth in Lending (5th ed. 2003), Fair Debt Collection (5th ed. 2004), and The Cost of Credit (2000, 2005). She was the 1992 recipient of the Vern Countryman Consumer Law Award.

Elizabeth Ryan is a partner in the Boston law firm Roddy, Klein, and Ryan, and formerly was a fellow at the National Consumer Law Center, a clinical instructor at D.C. Law Students in Court, and a staff attorney with Neighborhood Legal Services in the District of Columbia, and is a contributing author to Repossessions and Foreclosures (5th ed. 2002), the predecessor to this volume.
